

Join us for the Teach In organized by SSAHE
and CMDS ON 11 November

Birkbeck Cinema, 43 Gordon Sq, London WC1H 0PY
11 November, 1 -5 pm

The teach-in will address some of the troubling issues concerning migration in the UK and globally:

- why are migrants, often including “legal” migrants, criminalized?
- why are international students targeted in the new government proposals?
- why can't refugees bring their families to live with them?
- why is it controversial that asylum seekers are put in local hotels?
- why do so many migrants risk their lives crossing the channel?

Speakers include Eleonore Kofman, Nira Yuval-Davis, Sue Lukes, Paolo Novak, Zrinka Bralo, Giorgia Dona, and Ben Gidley.

All welcome – no need to register

Migration Scholars' Global Solidarity and Resistance Network

organizes simultaneous teach-ins/outs in locations around the world to AFFIRM that

- A War on Migrants is a War on All of Us
- Migration is a Social Good and a Right
- We Stand with Migrants.
